MESSAGE FROM THE VICE-CHANCELLOR LA TROBE UNIVERSITY

I am delighted to welcome you to this graduation ceremony. Warmest congratulations to all those receiving degrees today.

Graduations are an important occasion for the University, providing us with an opportunity to recognise your success, and to celebrate your attainment of knowledge – your most important possession, and the essential foundation for the next stage of your life.

Every university has a distinctive character and traditions, and one of La Trobe's defining features is the way our graduates show strong engagement with the world. This has been the case for almost 60 years and remains so today. As a graduate, you will join a community of more than 250,000 alumni in 168 countries who are working in their chosen fields to make the world a better place.

Thank you for being part of the La Trobe community, and for the contributions you have made to the University through your study and your participation in campus life. You are now lifelong members of La Trobe University. I encourage you to connect with other graduates around the world and stay involved with La Trobe.

Do not see this celebration as the endpoint of your education, for learning is a lifelong process. Your skills and knowledge must be regularly updated, and new technologies mastered. Should you need to extend or upgrade your knowledge and skills, La Trobe University will always welcome you back.

In the meantime, congratulations once again from all of us at La Trobe University. All the very best for your future endeavours.

LA TROBE UNIVERSITY: PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

In 1967, La Trobe University opened its doors with a founding mission: to serve communities through greater access to higher education. For almost 60 years, we've provided a pathway to success to people from all walks of life and continue to transform the lives of individuals and communities.

Of all Australian universities, La Trobe is the most successful at combining accessibility with excellence. We've worked hard to develop a global reputation while expanding our reach. Our students gain the technical skills they need for the jobs of the future, but also the human strengths of resilience, passion, curiosity and empathy that are essential in a modern workplace.

Our world-class high-impact research addresses the major issues of our time. We are placed in the world's top 300 universities,¹ and rank in the top 1 per cent of universities worldwide². We're top-rated nationally and rated 'well above world standard' in 23 fields of research³.

We have a long tradition of public scholarship and contributing to the national debate on the issues that matter. Our alumni community has experienced extraordinary success in government, industry and not-for-profit organisations. From judges and politicians to scientists and entrepreneurs, we've educated some of the world's best.

By leveraging our strengths and ethos of excellence and social inclusion, we're redefining what it means to be a great university for the 21st century.
